MIAMI'S DESIGN DISTRICT Once decrepit and deserted, the district's squat buildings caught the attention of design-savvy developers in the early 2000s. These days the area is thriving, and those same structures are packed with inspiring stores.

ADRIANA HOYOS Based in Ecuador and known for outfitting hotels like the Trump Ocean Club in Panama City, Panama, Hoyos and her eight furniture collections reflect a strong South American sensibility: clean lines, dark woods, and exaggerated proportions that look good in soaring rooms. Her pieces are all customizable. 4100 NE Second Ave., Suite 105, 305-572-9052, adrianahoyos.com.

JALAN JALAN Island-chic treasures from all over the world, including mirrors encrusted with mother-of-pearl, mangrove-wood floor lamps, and embroidered poufs. 3921 NE Second Ave., 305-572-9998, jalanmiami.com.

LUMINAIRE LAB Set up like an industrial gallery with exposed ducts and beams. Accessories and furniture range from the affordably quixotic (concrete-and-wire vases by Decha Archjananun) to the wildly covetable (Tokujin Yoshioka's cantilevered tables). 3901 NE Second Ave., 305-576-5788, luminaire.com.

MICHAEL DAWKINS HOME Sofas and chairs upholstered in white and natural linens look appropriately beachy. There are also crisp Dawkins-designed pillows and decorative accents like bone trays. 3628 NE Second Ave., 305-573-4355, michaeldawkinshome.com.

NEOTERIC LUXURY A fantasyland of sculptural outdoor furniture, with curtained four-poster daybeds, nest-like canopied sofas, and sinuous swing chairs, all woven out of eco-friendly synthetic wicker. 50 NE 40th St., 305-438-2842, neotericluxury.com.

NIBA HOME The heady and dramatic mix includes Tony Duquette by Remains lighting (the only Florida source), crystal-encrusted mirrors by Marjorie Skouras, sexy curved cabinets by Luis Pons, lyrical industrial lighting by Jacco Maris, and the owner's own collection of Lucite furniture. 39 NE 39th St., 305-573-1939, nibahome.com.

URBAN ART A favorite source for one-of-a-kind accessories, such as alabaster urns, leather boxes, polished kudu horns, and Murano glass seashells. Pieces have been collected from all over the globe and include distinctive furniture like Biedermeier consoles, shagreen-wrapped side tables, and 19th-century intarsia chairs. Popular with decorators, this trove is fortunately open to everyone. 75 NE 39th St., 305-576-7080, urbanarthome.com.

SUSANE R LIFESTYLE BOUTIQUE Miami meets the world here in funky, global style. Moroccan side tables share space with 1960s lamps in acid colors, midcentury bamboo bar carts, Javanese shell chandeliers, tribal masks from Burkina Faso, and the owner's line of Dorothy Draper-inspired chairs. 4141 NE Second Ave., Suite 106C, 305-573-8483, susanerlifestyleboutique.1stdibs.com.

THREADCOUNT Aside from gorgeous bedding and über-comfortable Savoir beds, they also stock South Beach-worthy towels from Missoni Home and Manuel Canovas, brightly colored placemats, gem-toned crystal soap dispensers, and more. Many of their lines are exclusive, including the exuberant pillows and duvets from Brazilian company Trousseau. 125 NE 40th St., 305-576-5500, tcmiami.com.

AND DON'T MISS MITCHELL GOLD + BOB WILLIAMS 3800 N. Miami Ave. (slated to open this summer), mgbwhome.com.
